

(2)

(3)

(d) Where is the Headquarters of Ramakrishna Mission situated?

(e) Mention the name of the author of the book, The Social Contract.

(f) "The aim of education is to develop worthy citizens of a country." Who said this?

(g) From which language the word 'philosophy' has been taken?

(h) Who was the author of the book, Pedagogy?

2. Write short notes on the following : 4×5=20

(a) Shankaradeva's philosophy of life

(b) Evaluation of Tagore's philosophy of education

(c) Functions of education according to Plato

(d) Concept of deconstruction

(e) Freire's criticism of present education

3. Discuss about the educational philosophy of Yajnavalkya. Give your assessment about the educational philosophy of Yajnavalkya. 4+6=10

4. What should be the aim of education according to Vivekananda? What should be the curriculum according to Vivekananda? 5+5=10

5. Discuss the aims of education according to Rousseau. Explain the characteristics of negative education of Rousseau. 5+5=10

Or

Write the concept of Rousseau's naturalism. Discuss its various characteristics. 5+5=10

6. What is pragmatism? What is the method of teaching in Dewey's pragmatism? 5+6=11

7. Explain Ivan Illich's opinion regarding the aims of education, curriculum, method and discipline. 2+3+3+3=11

Or

Discuss about the educational thoughts of Illich. Critically examine the relevance of Illich's educational thought in present education. 5+6=11
