Formation of gender sensitization committee against sexual harrasment

Gender Sensitization Committee against Sexual Harassment Cell:

Gender sensitization Committee against Sexual Harassment Cell is very much prominent in every educational institution. As per the guidelines laid down by the Supreme Court of India, in its ruling on the Writ Petition (Criminal) Vishaka vs. State of Rajasthan(1997) on the prevention and deterrence of sexual harassment at the work place. This is in keeping with article 21 of the constitution of India which occurs every individual have right to live with human dignity, free from exploitation etc. Therefore under constitutional obligation in India, there is no violation of fundamental right of any person. On the other hand, the guidelines on sexual harassment prevention in the workplace issued by the Honorable Supreme Court of India in 1997 and in accordance with the (Vishakha & OTHER VS. the state of Rajasthan & others) stated that every instance of sexual harassment is a violation of "Fundamental Rights" under Article 14,15, and 21 of the Constitution of India, and amounts to a violation of the "Right to Freedom" under Article 19(1)(g). Another Supreme Court judgement in January 1999 (Appal Export Promotion Council vs. Chopra) has stated that sexually harassing behavior "needs to be eliminated as there is no compromise on such violations". The Supreme Court further reiterated that sexual harassment "is a violation of the fundamental right to gender equality and the right to life and liberty". According to the Honorable Supreme Court of India has defined sexual harassment is any unwelcome sexually determined behavior such as:

1. Physical contact and advances.
2. Demand or request for sexual favors.
3. Sexually colored remarks.
4. Any other unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of a sexual nature.
